December, 2008

:Clever and Quick on Our Feet in Federation"

Hello Ladies,

The holidays are here and are truly the most wondrous time of the year. I hope all of you are enjoying them as much as I am.

Our December club meeting was a fun one. We had a nice holiday luncheon made with our favorite foods and had a gift exchange game.

I thanked everyone for all their hard work in making the last year a successful one. I asked the Club members who they would like to donate money to and here is the list they chose;

1. Crisis House - $100.00
2. Hospice - $100.00
3. St. Jude's Hospital - $100.00
4. Pregnancy Care Ctr.— $100.00
5. Friends of Los Nino's - $100.00

I wrote a little note along with the money to the charities.

Our Christmas dinner donation to the battered women of $150.00 and all the wonderful gifts that

Prayers

Our prayers go to Linda Cowle as she is having her operation on December 31. We are all praying for you Linda.

Bertha, you are in our prayers for the loss of your sisters.

Elaine Brack fell and broke her ankle and hurt her knee in early December. We hope she is on

The Abused Women

The table was full again with presents and food for the abused women and children. You women always come through and you made it possible for many families to have a wonderful Christmas in their time of need.

Our December Club Meeting

Our December meeting was very nice with a Christmas theme luncheon. Very delicious as always. Our gift exchange was a lot of fun with stealing from each other. A nice way to end the year with our Club friends and having fun together. (That is, if you ended up with the gift you wanted)

The new year is almost upon us and we can look forward to many new projects and more fun. Keep
